

From Surviving to Thriving in the Workplace

Because Going to Work Shouldn't Hurt!

WANTED

Prospective employee, willing to be bullied, harassed, demeaned and humiliated in the workplace.

This is a Want-Ad that you'll never see, yet it describes many workplace experiences.

Respect in the workplace happens one person at a time. It is not a collective effort, it is an individual one and it will only happen when we shift our experience of the workplace from a survival to thrival mindset!

“Going to work isn't something we do, it's an experience that we have.” *
What's your experience?

Make a Personal Investment in YOU!

It's time to invest in your Self beyond the once a year vacation that seems to end far too soon. This one of a kind seminar is that investment!

In two life altering days, in a supported and resourceful space, through conversation and guided reflections, you will rediscover and reclaim your authentic self, trusting that you are enough in the quest to live a fulfilling life!

Learn about the power of Choice-Points. How, when actively engaged in, old & limiting beliefs about what's possible for us collapse, creating space for thrival in our personal and professional lives and at an accelerated speed!
